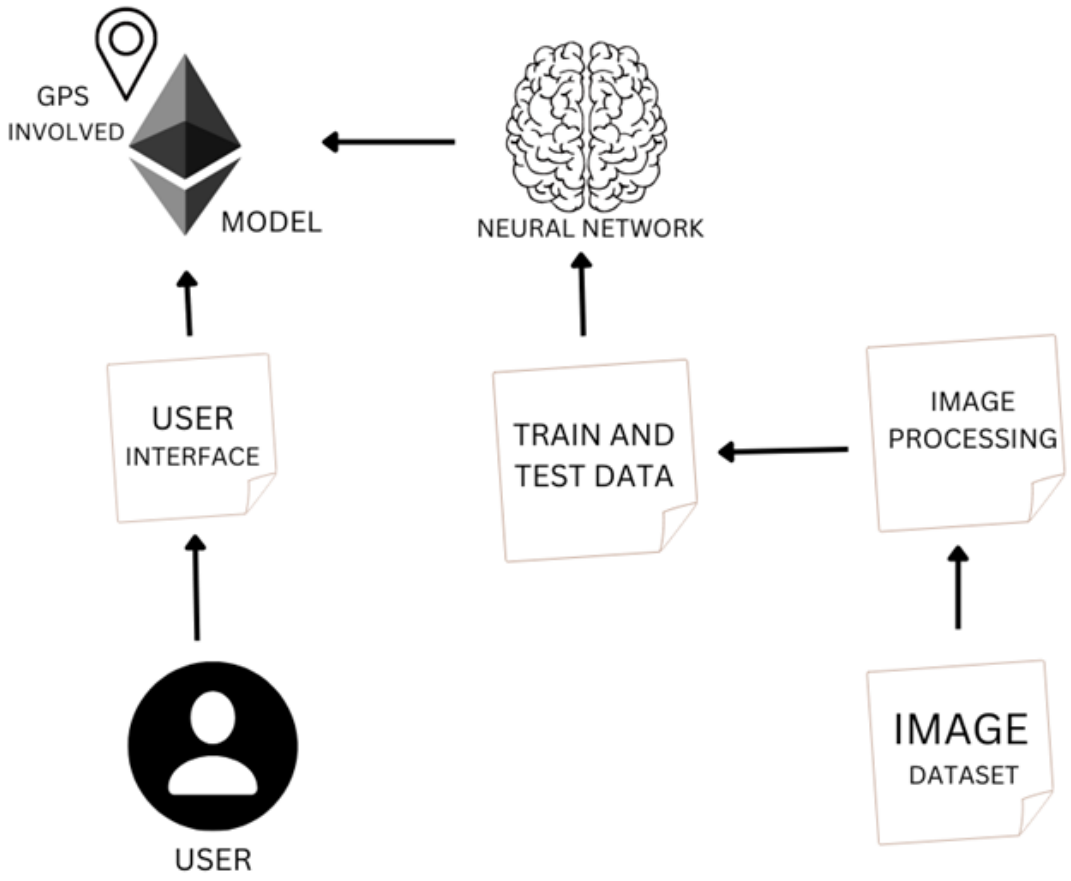
FIRST MILESTONE



Project Theme :

- The main one is that it helps blind people to engage with their social surroundings.
- It provides the person using this technology with information about facial recognition, object recognition or Automatic Speaker Verification.
- The output will be vocal from the device.
- It could also help with other tasks such as navigation